Accounting

Every business needs accurate and timely accounts for its own use, for Government and HM Revenue & Customs. With long-established expertise in all areas of accounting and compliance, we can ensure that your book-keeping and accounting practices not only fulfil your legal responsibilities, but actually help you in the day-to-day running of your business.

We can help with the following services, taking on as much, or as little, as is required to meet your requirements and budget.

- Annual accounts linked to tax work
 - Sub-contract accounts
 - Accounting for VAT, assistance with returns
 - Full book-keeping service
 - Management accounts, spreadsheet analysis
 - Cash flows, projections
 - Payroll and bureau facilities
- Construction industry requirements
 - Partnership accounts
 - Corporate financial statements in compliance with statutory requirements and abbreviated statements

Virtual Office

For many small businesses — sole traders, home-based, start-ups and ‘satellites’ of larger companies elsewhere in the country — the cost of permanently staffed offices can be prohibitive. Yet it can clearly help your business appear far more professional and free up time for core business activities.

Our ‘Virtual Office’ service gives you the benefits of secretarial and admin staff, without the full-time costs. Your phone calls can be answered professionally, in your name, by a ‘real person’ – not just an answerphone. And we can send you an email or text alert when that important client calls.

We can also accept and forward your mail, carry out secretarial duties or help with other work, such as marketing fulfilment, for example. Whatever you need, you only pay for the time you use. Our costs are competitive and we can tailor our services to meet your requirements and budget .

Auditing

Whatever your company audit requirements, we offer a competitive service without compromise in professional standards. Partner, Tony Storer is a Registered Auditor and a fellow of The Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales.

In addition to statutory audits, we have extensive experience in specialised audits covering charities, FSA regulated business and client accounts for solicitors and insurance brokers. We are also happy to provide an independent service if you do not wish to change from accountants without auditing services.

While our audit team's experience extends over many years, keeping up-to-date with current practice and statutory requirements is a prime concern. Our responsibility is maintained by subscribing to the market leading manuals, courses and checklists, with further support from the professional bodies.

Partner profiles

Andrew Isles trained with London-based accountants before moving into commerce. After nine years valuable experience outside accountancy, he returned to the profession at Partner level in 1989. He has completed further professional training in taxation.

Tony Storer is a Registered Auditor and a fellow of The Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales. He brings considerable experience to the practice after twelve years as a partner with a medium-sized national firm of Chartered Accountants.

Jon Emsden is a fellow of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants. Rising within the company to become a partner in July 2004, Jon has considerable experience in all aspects of our practice.

All of our partners regularly attend seminars to keep up-to-date with a wide range of accounting and tax matters.

Lender forecasts & reviews

The company's range of experience in both accountancy and business makes us perfectly placed to prepare forecasts for banks and other lending institutions. We offer a complete service, including management accounts, cashflow forecasts, projections and company reviews.

Our in-house professionals can work with you to provide a documented review of your requirements. We can meet with your bankers, put forward proposals. And we help both parties move towards the kind of agreements that allow you to run your own business with the finance you need to develop.

Payroll & PAYE

We offer a full payroll service to our clients, whether it is only for one employee or hundreds, reducing your in-house burden considerably. Cost can be as little as £10 per month.

As part of the service, we will complete all your end-of-year returns, and deal with SMP, SSP, Pensions, P45's and all related staff matters. And any enquiry from the Revenue can be directed through our offices, where our experienced staff will settle the enquiry, keeping you informed at all times.

Specialist services

There are times when businesses get into difficulties, often through no fault of their own. And quite apart from the financial situation, there can also be legal implications, especially for limited company directors.

After many years experience of dealing with clients in this position, our single most important recommendation is that timely advice and action always pays dividends. Without a plan of action, matters quickly become more serious.

At Isles Storer & Emsden, we have qualified professional staff available to offer specialist advice in respect of individual or corporate insolvency, voluntary arrangements and turnaround. This is capably handled by the separate practice of

Taxation

Whether you are self-employed, a partnership or incorporated business, taxation has a fundamental impact on the way you should conduct your affairs. The Government claims to have cut red-tape, but in reality, little has changed. So tax planning is vital, as every financial transaction can have a tax implication.

At Isles Storer & Emsden, we are hugely experienced across the full range of personal and corporate tax matters. So whether your requirements are simply annual accounts and tax returns, or more complex planning, we can offer a service to suit.

Personal:

- Income Tax
- Self Assessment
- PAYE
- Capital Gains Tax
- Inheritance Tax
- Trusts, UK and Offshore
- Tax Planning
- VAT

Corporate:

- Corporation Tax
- Self Assessment
- Tax Planning
- PAYE, National Insurance
- P11D
- PAYE Audit
- VAT
- CIS

VAT

Accounting for VAT is another element to our complete service, aimed at allowing clients to concentrate their time on what they do best. Our experienced staff can prepare and submit your VAT returns from your records and offer advice as appropriate. Or to reduce your burden even further, we also offer book-keeping services to reduce your own in-house requirements.

In the event of an inspection, VAT officers can inspect your records at our premises, where our professional staff will be on hand to guide them through your records and answer any queries. This, of course, relieves you of the time and the pressure of officers visiting your own home or business.

Competitive fees

At Isles, Storer & Emsden, we aim to offer a comprehensive service, catering for all your needs in the most professional, efficient and competent manner.

As part of this service, we offer a free, no obligation initial consultation. Discussing your requirements either in person or over the telephone at no initial cost, allows you to be reassured that we are the right match for you and your company.

Our professional fees are not only competitive, but agreed with you at the outset of our relationship, based on the services you wish us to carry out.

Fees can be fixed for a maximum of twelve months. And we recommend payment by monthly standing order, which enables clients to budget accurately, spreading the cost and cashflow implications of their services.
